

Residency Artists Application Questions (New Collaborator)

To apply, please fill in the application form here: <https://bit.ly/3eMV8KN>

Alternatively, you can answer the following questions in audio/video format.

Time guidelines for audio or video applications are (in parentheses).

Send audio/video applications WeTransfer to projectcoordinator@scottishyouththeatre.org

First off, what's your full name?

How old will you be on 01 January 2021?

What is your postcode?

And which Making Space route are you applying for?

Solo, Duo, Trio, or New Collaborator

Tell us a bit about your practice. (4 mins)

Describe the work you make, how you make it, and why.

Tell us about your approach to collaboration - why are you interested in working with a new collaborator at this moment? (4 mins)

If you're looking for a collaborator with a particular art form, you might tell us about that here.

What email address should we use to contact you?

Please confirm that you are available for the dates listed on the Scottish Youth Theatre website, and can commit to the whole Making Space project.

You can attach or send links to evidence of your previous work.

Please upload these via the application form.

If you are applying via audio or video, please email these to projectcoordinator@scottishyouththeatre.org

with the subject Line 'Making Space Residency: YOUR NAME Evidence'.

Please tell us if any of the following apply to you:

Scottish Youth Theatre takes an intersectional approach in our commitment to dismantling barriers to access for those systemically excluded from the arts.

- D/deaf
- Disabled
- Neurodivergent
- Working Class
- Black, Asian or Ethnically Diverse
- Transgender/Non-Binary

Thank you for your interest in Making Space.

The closing date for applicants is 5pm, Sunday 29 November.

We'll get back to all applicants by 5pm, Wednesday 2 December.

Shortlisted applicants will be invited for an online conversation with the Scottish Youth Theatre core team to share their ideas before final selection is made.